WELCOME

This term we welcome Liam Jenkins to Room 9 and Cache Oberio to Room 10.

From the Principal

Welcome back to a new school term. I hope everyone is refreshed and looking forward to a busy term.

Life Education Bus

Rudi, Harold and the Life Education Bus are with us this week delivering a range of health related programmes throughout the school. Our students look forward to their visit each year. They deliver very important information and messages on personal health and well-being.

Technology Expenditure

One on one Chromebooks are up and running in Rooms 10 and 11 and students are busy upskilling through a variety of classroom activities. In the coming weeks these will be extended into Room 12. Television screens were installed in most classrooms in the last week of Term One and the final two were installed in Rooms One and Four this afternoon. Not only do these screens provide a bright and clear picture, they allow students to wirelessly share their work on any ipad or Chromebook via Apple TV or Chromecast.

Giving – World Vision

One of the 'Five Ways to Well-Being' promoted throughout our school is giving. Middle and senior school students will have an opportunity to 'give' to those less fortunate than themselves by taking part on the upcoming World Vision Famine. Nadia Edmond from World Vision will speak with children tomorrow at the fortnightly Senior Syndicate assembly. I would ask that you support your child should they wish to participate in this worthy cause.

Teacher Stop Work Meeting

The Primary Teachers and Principals Collective Employment Agreement remains unsettled and teachers have been called to a stop work meeting on Thursday 9th May at 2pm.

We have the NZ Playhouse performance scheduled to perform for the whole school commencing at 1:45pm in our hall for the remainder of the afternoon.

School will remain open, we expect every student to remain at school as this performance is part of our school curriculum. There will be ample staff available to supervise students.

Guidelines and more details will be on these slips. If you have any questions please contact Miss Lang.
